Minute for Mission: Our gifts for M&S support ministries to those living on the margins, like First United Church Community ministry in east Vancouver B.C. The community has become the epicentre of the converging crisis of mental health, addiction, extreme poverty, homelessness and marginalization. The people who gather here for help are literally people who have nowhere else to go. They have been rejected by other shelters, mental health supports, hospitals, or their own families. The Executive Director notes that every day there has been a moment where he is surprised by joy: watching 2 participants of the Spirit Circle move through hostility to forgiveness; seeing the brother of a young woman murdered on the Pickton farm sweeping our steps, because he knows the role our staff play in advocating for missing and murdered women in our community. When the view is shifted from the negative to the positive in the Downtown Eastside, we see growth and community, not just poverty, addiction, and despair. He is filled with gratitude for the opportunity to serve the community and surprised by joy in this place. Loving our neighbour is at the heart of our M&S.

The next Grief and Bereavement Information Session in the Cafeteria Conference Room, L.A. Miller Centre on Tuesday, January 8, 7-9pm. (This session is held the 2nd Tuesday of every month). For further information, please contact Peter Barnes at 777-2167, peter.barnes@easternhealth.ca or Mag Snook at 777-8972, margaret.snook@easternhealth.ca

Housekeeping:

When driving to St. James during the week, morning and afternoon, please park for free in the first line nearest Elizabeth Avenue. Anywhere else in the parking lot is liable for a ticket.

Winter brings its share of challenges for St. James, one of which is keeping the floors of the Auditorium, Fellowship Room and Youth Church salt free. Please consider bringing indoor shoes with you when you visit the living rooms of St. James.

During periods of extreme weather, a committee consisting of Council Chair, Property Chair and the Clerk of Session (or their designates) in consultation with the Ministerial staff will determine if it is not reasonable to open for Sunday worship. Notification to the Congregation will be via VOWR, other radio stations, the website and the recorded telephone message by 8:30 am on the Sunday in question. A telephone contact sheet consisting of other key people to receive early notification will be maintained. This list includes, but is not restricted to the chief usher, musicians, and choir.
