Update on Clergy supply

To begin, we have confirmed that Rev. James Ravenscroft will join us on August 2, 2021. His first Worship Service will be on August 8.

Next, Rev. Rebecca Pike will join our ministry team on June 21 to provide, among many other duties, Pastoral care, Worship services, and emergency calls until August 1. Susan Sheppard will continue in her current position.

Rev Jim Von Reisen and Rev. Marion Davis responded willingly to our call in September 2020 when we needed them to provide for Sunday Worship. First online, and then in person, they have adapted as Public Health has directed since then. They have been a blessing to us all, delivering insightful and meaningful Sunday Worship Services. Both have received considerable accolades following their services.

As you may have noted, the current Worship Schedule cycle ends at the end of June. It is at that time we will say farewell to Rev Marion on June 20 and Rev. Jim on June 30. We thank them most sincerely for their willingness to help us out in our time of need and for their commitment to St. James. As a congregation, we are most fortunate to have their support.

We wish them both all the best as they once again resume their retirement lives. They will be missed in the pulpit, but we hope they will join us in the pews for worship, in the knowledge that they will always have a place at St. James.

Again, THANK YOU and God bless you !

On June 21st we want to recognize International Indigenous Peoples Day. The folks at First Light - St. Johns Friendship Centre have a full week of activities planned for the community.
