James will be back to co-lead the Memorial Hymn Sing service on Sunday, May 15 along with the Guitar Group and Amy Dalziel.

Young Adults: The young adults group will be going to enjoy a movie on May 11. For more details you can connect with James.

Message from Council:

As you are aware our office administrator, Tracy, had her last day on Friday, May 6 and will be pursuing new interests and challenges with the Provincial Government. We thank Tracy for her service to the congregation and staff at St. James. She has presented a sunny welcome to those who called or visited the office and has been very accommodating in meeting the tasks assigned to her. We are sorry to see her go but wish her well as she begins a new chapter in her career path.

The office will be run by some of our volunteers for the interim while St. James hires a new Office Admin. So please connect with the office before coming to the building to ensure that one of our volunteers will be in the building to assist you.

Weekly Fellowship: We are hosting a tea and coffee following the 11:00am service on Sundays. So if you can, bring a mug with you so we don't have to use too many disposable cups, and we'll have a mug up after Sundays service in the Fellowship Room.

Pub Theology for May: This month's Pub Theology gathering is scheduled for May 18 at 7:00pm. At this time the plan is to meet in person at The Guv'nor, assuming that numbers of infections from COVID keep going down from earlier in the month.

Memorial Sing Hymn – We have added “Jesus You Have Come to The Lakeshore” to the Sing Hymn. Additional submissions will be accepted.

When: Sunday, May 15, 2022 at St. James United.

Submission Deadline: Monday, May 9, 2022.

Payments can be made via cash/cheque and you can place your form and payment in the secure drop-box to the right of the office entrance or drop it to the office during office hours.

You can also email your dedication to info@stjamesuc.org.
Electronic payments can be made by "Donate" button on the website or by e-transfer to treasurer@stjamesuc.org.

Please note "Hymn Sing" with your payment.

A tax receipt will be issued.
